*Yesterday is but today's memory,
Existing only in our minds.

Like an ever-changing kaleidoscope,
The past is revealed by a pattern
Colored by half-remembered,
Scattered thoughts.

Each thought is a bit of stained glass,
Some somber,
Some sparkling;
Some stained with satisfaction,
Some with regret.

Each represents a person,
A place,
Or an experience
Which contributes to the whole design of Yesterday.

Through this book,
The past becomes alive again.*

FOREWORD

The past four years at Peabody High School have been an experience that most of us will look back upon with fond memories. In this short span, we have built a foundation of honesty and maturity, both socially and academically, that will guide us in the years to come.

This yearbook is a reminder of our high school life. It holds memories of many treasured friends and moments that we have experienced during our high school careers.

It is both an end and a beginning. It is the end of our life as a high school student and the beginning of our life as mature adults.

We of the META Staff would like to express our sincere thanks to the teachers and counsellors who have given unselfishly of their effort and time: Mr. Callahan, our literary advisor; Miss Luz, our business advisor; Mr. Ginsberg, our photographer, and our yearbook publisher, Mr. Condon. They deserve much praise and thanks for their help and understanding. Without them, there could never have been a yearbook.

THE EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

DEDICATION

"Not only is there an art in knowing a thing, but a certain art in teaching it."

In our four years at Peabody High School we, the students of the Class of 1969, have found ourselves under the care and tutelage of an exceptional teacher, Miss R. Dorothy Lee.

Her ability as a teacher of French is expressed in transmitting to her students not only her knowledge of the subject but also a complete understanding and love of it. Pupils leave her class with a deeper appreciation not only of the subject but also of the customs and habits of the people whose mother tongue it is. The lessons and precepts she taught will endure long after her students graduate.

We must also remember the warmth and understanding Miss Lee has for all students of Peabody High. If any member of the "now generation" needs help or counseling, Miss Lee is more than willing to be of assistance.

As head of the Foreign Language Department, Miss Lee is held in high esteem by her colleagues. They know that any problems or questions they have will be carefully considered and sympathetically reviewed.

Because she knows her subject, has the art of teaching it, and believes in her students and fellow colleagues, we, the members of the Class of 1969 are honored to dedicate META 1969 to Miss R. Dorothy Lee.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Boyle gave all she had to life, enjoying each moment to the fullest extent. She possessed a valuable sense of humor, which enabled her to smile in the face of hardship. A dedicated, selfless person, she was a friend to all, helping teachers and students alike, and asking nothing in return.

Her vibrant cheerfulness will always remain with us, guiding and helping us overcome life's difficulties.

To The Class of 1969

As Chief Executive of the City of Peabody, I wish to congratulate you upon the successful completion of your secondary education.

In your final year at Peabody High School, you have seen Americans travel to the moon and return. In my days at Peabody High School, the very idea of going to the moon was unbelievable.

The scientific progress made in this century has surpassed all of the scientific knowledge of the past two thousand years. I hope that you, as a member of the Class of 1969, will make a significant contribution to our country and to the progress of mankind everywhere.

With every best wish for your future success, I remain

Sincerely yours

Nicholas Mavroules

In Memoriam

We, the Class of 1969, would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute to two of our fellow classmates. It is with great sadness and sense of loss that we look upon the memories of William Dexter and Eric Kolhonen. Both of these young men contributed to making our class an unforgettable one.

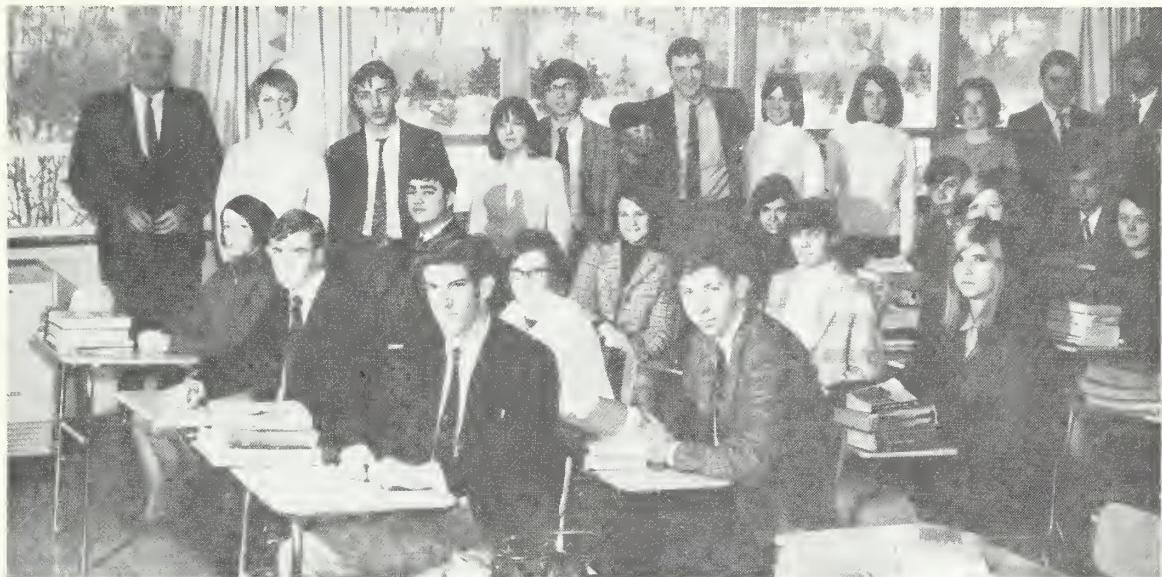

Billy Dexter participated in football, basketball and track at Peabody High. He had outstanding school spirit and determination, combined with ability.

Eric was active in many clubs at Peabody High. He participated in track and was manager of the football team. His friendly manner and unselfish attitude made him popular among his classmates.

As we look back to our days at Peabody High, these two boys, Billy Dexter and Eric Kolhonen will not be forgotten.

HOMEROOM A-18

Mr. Cronin

At 7:15 a.m.

On a sleepy Monday morning we see a very much awake CHRIS BARNES talking to her boyfriend just inside the door of A-18.

As we enter the room we find KATHY BRANN and ELAINE BIRMINGHAM chattering away — about boys, of course!

JOYCE BEZEMES can be found wandering the corridors talking about the past weekend.

GEORGE BAILEY, already in his seat, is looking over his daily newspaper — the New York Times. (What's new, GEORGE?).

In a few minutes we hear the familiar voice of AL ATKINSON yelling across to JULIO (DAN ANTOS) who completely ignores him.

7:30 a.m.

The bell rings, attendance is taken, and MR. CRONIN, taking count of his prisoners discovers that one is missing. But who? None other than BOB ANDREWS — late again as usual.

During 4th period, the gang's invited to MR. MAKELA's room so MR. CRONIN can teach future drivers.

DEBBIE BRONSTAD and ELLEN ANDREWS can be found at MISS COSTELLO's office, but JOHN APOSTOLIDES is nowhere to be found. (Where have you been all year, JOHN?). We see DONNA BYRON as a great make-up artist, but her model doesn't seem to be too enthusiastic.

JOSEPH ANDREWS and GARY ALLEN are quietly doing their homework amidst mass confusion of talking and laughing. How they do it is a secret no one will ever know.

RON ALDENBERG, JOHN AGOSTINO and WAYNE ATHERTON are talking and seem to be looking over the local situation.

JOHN ANDRIANOS wanders around the room waiting for class to begin.

Walking back from lunch, JOYCE ANDERSON is certainly taking her time with someone; and behind a comb we find PAT BREEN fixing her hair. Who are you fixing it for, PAT?

A knock at the door awakens MANNY BETTENCOURT and in come NANCY ABBOTT and JANE ANASTASOPOULOS trying to think of a good excuse for being late.

NORMA BAILEY and JOAN BARRY are discussing some mysterious happenings. (Things no one will ever know).

That's a typical day in the life of A-18 and another day down the drain.

Although we see MR. CRONIN less than most students see their homeroom teacher, we will always remember his sense of humor and the help and understanding he gave us before and after school.

The students of A-18 would also like to thank MR. MAKELA for putting up with double trouble all year.

Mrs. Hosman

CATHY CONWAY and RICH CODDINGTON patiently sit in A-19 awaiting the arrival of the first bell. As it rings, LINDA CAVALLON, DEBBIE CROWELL, MARY CHAPMAN, and SHIRLEY CAITO walk in. They go directly to the windows near the heater and start to plan some schemes for the fourth period. Then, in comes CANDY CROWELL, BILL COSTELLO, and LINDA CAMA who sit down and try to study for forthcoming exams.

Just before the final bell rings we see DEBBIE CASWELL, NANCY COHEN, and JANET CHASE arriving from three different directions. Each girl is trying to get one foot in the door before that loud bell ends all discussions.

BOB CARPENTER, BILLY CARROLL, and BILL CAICO must be given credit for trying to sneak in unnoticed. Sadly to say they never seem to succeed. Off to MR. JOHNSON's office they go.

When we return to homeroom from three long, hard classes, we go to our 4th period study. DAN CALLAHAN, JOHN CRONIS, and HENRY COLANTUONI always seem to be among the missing. Various meetings and band practice offer them their many diversions.

During this so-called silent study, PETER CARTER manages to tell his jokes and to tease EILEEN CORBETT, LYNN CASAVECCHIA, and GAIL CROWELL.

When we return to homeroom after a long and tedious day, we find JAMES CARAFA, FRANK CATAPANO, and ANDREA COSTA ready and willing to be the first ones out of the door and on their way.

We, the homeroom students of A-19, wish to thank MRS. HOSMAN for all of the memories and advice that she has given to us. We hope that she will long remember her homeroom class of 1969.

Miss Fillis

It's 7:15 and the only one in homeroom is JIM DUDA, busily doing his homework. Did you get it done, JIM? The first bell rings at 7:24 and RONNY FLYNN comes strolling through the door to the disappointment of LINDA FERRY. Here comes GINNY DENOFRIO, LIZ ERCHA, and MARGIE CULLINAN catching up on the latest news and gossip at P.H.S. ELIZABETH CUNHA is conversing with a few friends from B-29. The bell to begin homeroom rings and everyone has arrived. Well, that is, almost everyone! Here comes LARRY DRINKWATER, late as usual.

At the beginning of the fourth period, SOL ESKENAZI can be found carrying out business as our illustrious homeroom rep. FRANK DURGAN and BOB DRISCOLL make plans for their new team as airplane mechanic and aviator. JUDY DONOVAN is wishing she could go to vocational lunch instead of second lunch. Don't all girls! Where's MAUREEN FARRELL? Maybe BILL DRYER can tell us why she's not here. A visitor asks for MISS FILLIS and it's SANDY DODGE to the rescue! Where is she, SANDY, behind the door?

Talking busily while catching up on their homework are MARIE FLORAMO and DONNA FERRARA. The telephone rings and IRENE EGAN's presence is requested at the main office! The President of our Senior Class, STEVE DELANEY, is at one of his important class meetings. In the rear corner we find CHARLES DEMOREE waiting for some action while DIANE FORD is among the missing. She's probably in MR. MAKELA's room with CHRIS FIRICANO. ISABELLE DOMES radiates her knowledge to those around her while SANDY ELSEA struggles with her calculus.

We would like to say good-bye to our young friend and student teacher MR. D'ALESSANDRO and wish him great success in the future. We would also like to thank MISS FILLIS for being so nice to us and for her courage and patience beyond the call of duty as head of our homeroom.

HOMEROOM A-21

Mr. Makela

It's 7:25 and . . .

here we are — back in the old Hallowed Halls of P.H.S. I hope we can make it through another day. As we approach A-21, we see MR. MAKELA hobbling around trying to get JOHN McCARTER, RON FOTOS, RICH FUNCHION, and MOOSE FREDERICKS out of the corridor and into the homeroom. As we come a little closer we see PAT GAWRYS already busy studying.

The 7:30 Bell rings and . . .

We enter the homeroom and see the portraits BARB HAIG did of us on the bulletin board to our right. On the left, we see the cartoons so aptly done by NICK KOKORAS. TOM MAKELA and JIM LIACOS are already in their seats; we wonder if they got new alarm clocks this year! The 7:35 bell rings and the first one out the door is STEVE MALLIA; he must be anxious to get to class.

Fourth period soon arrives and ESTELLE KALLAS, GINNY HOEPER, and KATHY JACOBITZ tell VAL JOHNSON about their latest boy adventures. Behind them are DAWN McCLORY and SUSAN KONEVICH discussing their boy problems. YVONNE GALLINELLI and DANNY GREEN are sitting together as usual, and ANNE GAETA is talking to DAN LAUZON. CHRIS FULLER is nowhere to be found; she must be working in the office. It looks like DIANE HICKS is having problems with her English again; she's asking MR. MAKELA all sorts of questions. Did you know we had a queen in our homeroom? Sure we do! CINDY McNEILL was the P.H.S. Homecoming Queen. The newest addition to our homeroom, DIANE KESSLER, is having an argument, or should we say discussion, with our top debator, RALPH MINICIELLO. PETE MORFIS and DON HARWOOD are having an animated discussion about sports as ED LeGAULT makes the rounds trying to squeeze our class dues out of us. There's JOE FREITAS sitting up back with somebody special. Crazy KEN KRAVETZ, who is dying to get to MR. CALLAHAN's fifth period, is first out of the homeroom as the bell rings.

At last, seventh period is over! Everyone is crowding the door trying to be the first one out. FRAN MORIN is on her way to the gym for intramurals.

Before we leave, we would like to thank MR. MAKELA for surviving as our homeroom teacher. It took both courage and stamina to head our rambunctious homeroom. His friendly attitude towards us was appreciated.

HOMEROOM A-26

Mr. Bezemes

In June of 1969, the students of Homeroom A-26 had decided to return for one class day on April 17, 1989. DIANE OLSON was chosen to contact all the students. She was quite happy at our "perfect" attendance — something which we hardly ever saw in 1969. MARGARET SWIDERSKI, the secretary to HENRY TURGEON and PHIL PICARD, the famous walking Walnetto Salesmen, recorded the events of that day. From her records we have attained the following:

The Indian Missionary, MARY MURPHY, led us in our silent meditation. We attended seminars by LESLIE WISEMAN, world renown Educator; MIKE NOLAN, Mathematician; PETE SAKELAKOS, the P.H.S. Football Coach; HENRY NACZAS, American Ambassador to Moscow; JOYCE NEKOROSKI, Social Worker; KATHY NEVINS, Designer, and CHARLIE OSBORNE, King of England.

Broadcaster JOE SHERRY read the fourth period announcements. There would be a cultural assembly in the gym for all who were interested. Ballerina BETH NASECK and SANDY SPIGEL, the interpretive dancer from Africa, would be performing. ARLEEN VANNETT would exhibit her unequalled skills with the baton. The famous portrait artist, DONNY RAPHAEL, would paint banker BUZZY PARTALEDIS.

That afternoon, KAREN RODENHISER, a T.Q.A. stewardess, presented a free tour of West Peabody for all those who were interested. Many of the students wanted to go and CHERYL TEBEAU, a computer processor consultant, helped with the paper work. Journalist SHELLEY TUCK wrote coverage on the story for the Peabody Times. SHIRLEY TESSLER, a U.N. Interpreter, was our guide on the tour.

When we returned after seventh period, we were welcomed by SANDI TUCK, an officer in the W.A.C.'s. CHEYRL SINGER, the city's Dental Hygienist, passed out a copy of the 1989 Meta Supplement, of which JOAN TABROFF was the editor. JOAN read a note from MR. BEZEMES, our homeroom teacher in 1969, which said that he was sorry he couldn't make the reunion. He was touring Europe and learning the geography in greater detail. There were many sad faces when we heard that he would not be coming. Not only was he a teacher to us, but also a friend.

Before leaving, we set the date of APRIL 4, 2009 for our next class day reunion. See you then!

HOMEROOM B-27

Mr. McDonald

Buzzz!!! The alarm clock has sounded! It's now 6:00, the time when we are off to Homeroom B-27. We are really enthusiastic about entering our Homeroom. Here are just a few examples why:

As we approach our Homeroom, we see WARREN DANIELS and GREG CURRENS fighting to get in their lockers. Meanwhile, we see ED CASSIDY and PAUL CARTER standing outside the door talking over what had happened that weekend.

The 7:30 bell has just rung, but where are ELLEN CHAMPAGNE and SUE GALLAGHER? In their wrong seats as usual. JOANNE ATKINSON can be seen saying farewell to BOBBY, while JEAN BARRY runs by telling MR. McDONALD that she is here. And finally here comes BOB FADER.

The attendance is taken. KAREN GALLAGHER is absent and NORMAN GABORIAULT, a new student, is present. Welcome to Peabody High, NORM!

LYNNE BERRY, our Homeroom Representative, makes a futile attempt to collect our class dues. Unhappily she sits down and talks the money situation over with DAVE ALTSHULER. CINDY COHEN, a member of the Baton Squad, is sitting quietly at her desk twirling her pencil as if it were her baton, trying to figure out one last math problem. Here comes DOREY DEVANEY saying good morning to CHUCKIE DOLAN (who is just beginning to enjoy P.H.S.).

DEB COVIELLO is sitting quietly finishing her shorthand homework while LINDA CROUGHWELL is looking on. Suddenly Mr. McDonald yells at her for nothing. (Something is going on down there!).

LORETTA FALLAS is sitting talking with CATHY FIELD. (Wonder what about?). By the way — welcome to P.H.S., Cathy.

Everything is quiet, but somewhere in the room we hear a crunchy noise. Is it a mouse? No, it's BARRY FEINSTEIN eating Life Savers.

Here comes another straggler . . . BARRY GINSBERG coming in from next door. (What's so interesting in there, BARRY?).

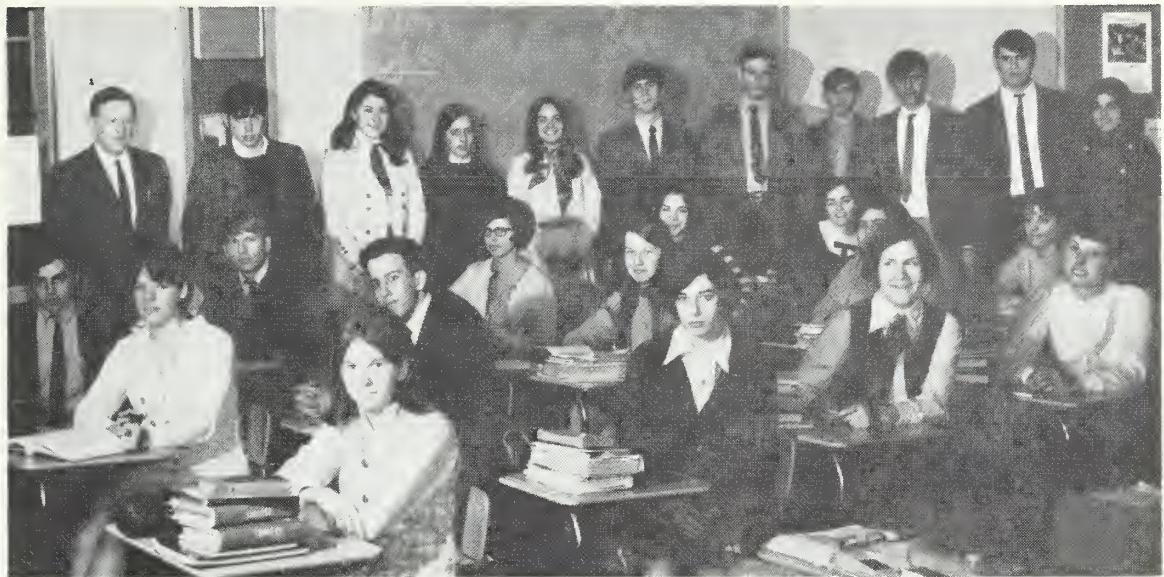

As Homeroom period comes to an end, ROSE BERDACHOWSKI is impatiently waiting for the bell.

PAM BIGGIN rushes to her seat but she's too late! The bell rings just at that moment. Well, at least she tried.

Lastly, we want to congratulate MR. McDONALD for being able to control us and thank him for all the fun times we've had. Best wishes from B-27!

There's a stagecoach coming into West Peabody, driven by PETER GRULICH and guarded by "quick-draw" TOM HONAN. All of a sudden PAUL HARRISON holds up the stagecoach with his Winchester B-28. To the rescue comes JESSE JOHN GRAGLIA, riding his battery-operated psychedelic camel.

LET'S TRY 1902:

The place is Main Street, EILEEN KITSAKOS, alias Henry Ford, has just finished her newest invention. And here it comes at the tremendous speed of two miles per hour. Sorry, EILEEN, we will walk into the next time period .

1928

These were the days to be on the lookout for AL CAPONE and JOHN HECKMAN. There's loud music coming from Minsky's, where our flappers, ANNIE KALIVAS, LAURIE GRACEFFA, and PAULA HANS are making their debut.

LET US SKIP A FEW YEARS TO THE YEAR 2000.

We take you to our gypsy, DONNA KAMES, who is gazing into her crystal penny.

"Donna, tell us what you see?"

"I see an African desert. I hear music played by GARY GOLDMAN on guitar and LEON KARAHALIS on the tuba. There's JEAN HURLEY doing her 'pigeon' dance. And now I see a football field; it's the biggest game of the year. Wait, the game has stopped and the players are waving toward the bench. The crowd goes wild, as RALPH HUDSON runs down the field carrying the water bucket. There's someone running behind him; of course, it's DENIS HOBBES. I see TANIA JEROW, a famous opera star. There's DONNA KARAKOUDAS, saleswoman for a variety of perfumes. SUE KESSEL is a well-known actress on Purina Dog Chow commercials. And there's "FLASH" STEVE JAMGOSHIAN; he's just come back from his trip of walking across the country. Thought you would like to know, that he started this trip the day after graduation. Congratulations, KAREN! KAREN KELLEY, our paint by number artist, is now on her 'Howdy Doody' volume."

Now we take you to Arabia, where RALPH HOSKER has just taken his 12th wife. A dozen makes a good number for a harem! PATTI KERKORIAN has the honor of being number 1! DIANE KALINOWSKY and PAM KARABELAS are still stranded on the moon, discussing the future plans for their planet, "Karabelanowsky." We end this with last but not least PAULA HARVEY, KAREN HOSKER, and BETTY HAYWARD still working on a formula trying to get the astronauts back.

Before we leave, we want to thank MR. DREW for his help in deciding our future. His many calls to Salem State and surrounding colleges were not in vain.

It's Din-Din time at the Zany Zoo of Homeroom B-29. Approaching the cages is zoo-keeper MISS McLAUGHLIN with a bunch of bananas for CHARLIE (the Chimp) LINCICUM and his barrel of monkeys: DONALD KOZAK, DAVID KRIEDBURG, JOYCE LeCAIN, RICH KRISCO, KATHY LARRABEE, MIKE LAWRENCE, and on KENNY LANGLEY's ear sits JAMES LeBLANC, bugging him as usual. As we travel next door, we see Lion tamer MIKE KOLATKA.

As we continue through the zoo, we all know that "Birds of a feather flock together" as do JEAN KONOPNICKI, JOAN LaCHANCE, CHARLOTTE KOHUT, and CINDY KLINT. Along with these birds, we find the very talkative parrot, MARIA LEITAO, always asking, "whose got the gum, whose got the gum?" Our talented feathered friends are SMILEY LOTEN, the Humming Bird, and the Singing Canary, KATHY LAMY. Just arriving for feeding time is DEBBIE (the dove) LEARY.

In the pens we find quiet as lambs, JOHN LAUGHLIN, KATHY LINEHAN, BILLY LINEHAN, and SUSAN MAHONEY. Just behind, trying to cause trouble, is FRANK KOSIDLAK, the giraffe.

Hopping around from place to place is JEFF (the Kangaroo) LUBOW, while in the very next cage is TINA (the Tiger) KOKORAS, associating with her den-mate, KAREN LEVINE, the Laughing Hyena. Having been trained to live with these fierce animals is our ever embracable boa constrictor, COOKIE LEVESQUE.

Din-Din time is over at the zoo, and regretfully so is our stay at P.H.S.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our wonderful Zookeeper, MISS McLAUGHLIN, for taking such great care of us.

Mrs. Nee

Ding! It's seven-thirty and B-30 has congregated in front of our beloved door. Very slowly we all file in — some half awake, hungry, and still shaken up from the bus ride to school. LENNY MARSHALL, JIM McDERMOTT, PETER MANUSIOTIS, PHIL McKEON, and LUIS MEDEIROS stagger in and sink half asleep into their chairs. SALLY ODETTE, CATHY MANDRAGOURAS, JEAN MARCONI, EZILDA MARTINS, and CINDY MUISE are still chatting out in the hall with the girls from B-31. MICHELLE MELITO is strolling around soliciting for Avon. CHERYL MUISE, MARIE McDONNELL, CLAIRE MANDRAGOURAS, and DEBBIE MAVROULES are hashing over the latest gossip. MRS. NEE finally coaxes everyone into their seats and takes attendance.

At 7:34 AL MATUSIAC, RICH NANGLE, JOANNE MANOOGIAN, ANITA MARCHETTI, VICKI MORSE, and GERI NIGRO come running in late as usual. Now we have settled down and gotten over the initial shock of waking up at 6:30.

The bell rings and once again — bedlam! The day goes on. Finally the time has come to return for lunch, DEAN McCLORY, TOM NADEAU, and CINDY MARDEN get their little circle together and DEAN starts eating his lunch.

At the end of the day, we're finally awake and now we're going home. It's been a good day but a great year. Lots of thanks to our Homeroom teacher, MRS. NEE.

The 7:30 bell rings as:

PAUL PEARSON rushes in claiming his bus was late again. Who are we to argue?

Fourth period, the busiest time of day around here, soon arrives. There is a great deal of commotion on one side of the room. It seems that JOHN SWINIARSKI, JOE RE, DAVE THOMAS, ELENA PECHINSKY, CONNIE ORLANDO, and NANCY YAGJIAN are discussing the pros and cons of the "I.G.A. Boys". DOC enters the conversation and the next thing you know NANCY and CONNIE have gum on their noses.

JUDY POLANSKY has just returned from her errand to the office and looks puzzled. ANN MARIE WALTERS, trying to stop the commotion, decides to collect her Observer money. While all this is going on, AIDAN SKIFFINGTON is studying for another English test. It seems as if he has one every day.

"The Susan Club" is not listening. The members, SUZI SHOER, SUE PORTER, and SUE SWARTZ, are plotting to take over the Observer, so that they can get their names in it.

Our wonderful Homeroom Representative, RAY TALKINGTON, isn't collecting dues today. He is trying to get DIANE TURCOTTE to fill in her correct weight on the graduation form. She weighs only 110 lbs. — not 115 lbs.

ANNA PATULEIA looks very dreamy-eyed over in her corner. Guess she's thinking about JOE again.

Writer's cramp is becoming very common since senior pictures have arrived. NANCY REED, MARY SWALGEN, PAT PYBURN, and BOBBIE ZASTOWSKY have it already.

By this time, PEPE has entered into the "I.G.A." argument and believes that the only way to settle things is to let ARTHUR TOBEY decide everything. NANCY STASULIS thinks the whole thing is ridiculous and returns to her book, "The Complete Works of Homer".

We'd like to thank DOC for our unforgettable Senior Year at P.H.S. His sense of humor and interest in his students made this our best year ever.

Mr. Faria

The 7:30 bell has just rung, and everyone is rushing to make it into homeroom on time. There stands MR. FARIA, erasing GALE FEE's baby feet from the blackboard, and smiling as usual.

Hey, there's ELISE BLOOM daydreaming; she still has hopes of being reincarnated as a tree?! And there's JOHN COLA doing his physics homework, with TOM ANDRUS-KIEWICZ at his side.

The Konversation Korner is going into full gear this morning. We see JOE BERARDINO and RUSS ALBRIGHT listening attentively to LOIS CHUMACK and CHRIS CHESLEY; and here comes DONNA HART to join in. The early hour of the morning certainly hasn't affected their energy!

It's that time of year when we seniors are thinking about our futures, and here comes NANCY JACOBSON, worrying about her immediate future. She forgot her locker combination again, so she's late for homeroom. Please let her off easy, MR. FARIA!

Yummy, yummy, it's now 10:20 and we've just returned from the bread line. Three early birds back from the cafeteria are LEONARD CLARK, NELDA GILMER, and MAUREEN CRAIGEN. These three kids are short on words but long on charm.

The tardy bell has just rung, and GEORGE KING and DAVE FORSYTH are beating a hasty retreat from C-67. Meanwhile, CATHY CATALFAMO tells Linda Borucki that she can't wave to RICKY anymore — the Vocational School is snowbound.

Homeroom activities are really getting underway now. There's PAT HOGAN slyly combing her hair, and here comes KAREN HEIL, our sly little Observer note-writer. Wonder what she has up her sleeve now?

LESLEY KERSHAW can be found peddling her Girl Scout cookies as MAUREEN CONRAD goes off to a cheerleader's meeting. DEBBIE HOWARTH is proudly displaying her pictures of MIKE.

Our history scholar, CAROL HALLINEN, is studiously doing her history, while LINDA BOSINOFF, our human adding machine, counts activity sheets for the yearbook. Ah, there's our own little Chatterbox of C-66, LINDA GAGNON, busily working on this homeroom saga. And there's SANDY KALENIK, who still gets embarrassed when someone mentions the time she got her finger caught in her zipper.

Oops, there goes the bell, but before we leave we must not forget to mention our class mascot — BECCA COLLIER.

And now, we pledge allegiance to MR. FARIA, for enduring us throughout our senior year. THANKS A LOT, MR. FARIA. IT WAS REALLY GREAT!!

A typical 4th period in Homeroom C-67 begins this way. MARY KOUTSOUKIS comes running into the room pleading with JOHN KRAWEZYK to help her with her math homework while PATTI OSGOOD and MARTY NATHEOS dash off in the opposite direction to a cheerleaders' meeting. In the back of the room congregates the "good ol' gang." Members RICK LARSON and BOB NICHOLAS are listening to WAYNE LESSARD tell about his long hours and hard work at "Burger Chef," as PAT LOMELIS gives the week-end ski report and BETH LYNCH sings a few songs for the class.

As we move along we hear LARRY LORING recite some of his latest poetry to BEVERLY MARDER and MARCIA LIBMAN. Suddenly, CHARLIE LINGLEY interrupts to give his unbiased opinion of it. MARY-JANE LUSCOMB sits quietly writing notes, while SUE NAFRANOVICH and MIRIAM O'ROURKE study. JAN LUSTER and LINDA PAGE are off to MR. THEOKAS' office planning their future.

On the far side of the room, sitting in their old lady's sewing circle are CHARLIE MAIHOS, GEORGE MONTEIRO, BART MADRUGA, and BILLY OLSTEAD, discussing matters known only to them. The conversation of PHIL MELLO and GLORIA PAGE is interrupted because of a phone call from the main office. As usual, ELAINE PAPPAS and SUE NICOLINI are arguing with MR. CARR.

As the bell rings, the different groups disband, pick up their books, and drag themselves out of the room to finish another day at P.H.S.

We hope that the student's of MR. CARR's homeroom next year appreciate his help and advice as much as we have.

As you walk into the "cabins" of C-68, you will see BARB RONAN giving her daily tap dancing lessons. Her class consists of PEGGY PATTERSON, NANCY RUST, and ANNA PYBURN with GINNY PROVENCHER hooting to the beat of the music.

Every once in a while, you can hear "Mouse" (MICHAEL PAUL) asking for class dues. DOROTHY PROVENZANO is getting her daily exercise jogging up and down the aisles! PAT ST. PIERRE, JIMMY SABINO, and CHARLES SALLEY have just come in from their music class. As they enter they are tackled by BOB RAUCCI and JIMMY PERAKIS. Working on his math at the back of the room is our mathematician, PHIL PERRY. Occasionally, DANNY PERRY can be heard shouting, "Hey, hey!"

Will everyone please be quiet! ROSEMARY PARVANIAN is trying to give a lecture on flower power, but FRED PATURELLI keeps interrupting to give his latest report on Nassau.

Will someone please tell MIKE PERRY to stop gabbing? MARTIN QUINLAN is trying to sleep and LINDA REGIS is busy doing her homework.

We often wonder what EILEEN ROUMELIOTIS finds so interesting in MR. MEAGHER'S classes.

In the chaos at the back of the room we can distinguish the voices of HARVARD PIKE describing his easy Physics tests and JAMES ROGATO telling jokes.

If anyone is looking for KATHY POTUWA, she can be found playing basketball or practicing on the trampoline in the gym.

The things that most C-68ers will remember are PETRA PETERSON's safaris to the girl's room, MICHAEL RICHMAN giving orders, TIM RIORDAN's battles with the heat, and ROBERT RICH's heavy foot on the gas.

We would all like to say thank you to MRS. KILEY, our homeroom teacher, for putting up with us and for helping to make our senior year one of the best.

Before the 7:30 bell rings we see a few stragglers come running in. PAUL TEAL can be found looking at a sports car magazine. After the bell rings, PETE STAVROS comes running in out of breath. Late is usual, right, PETE! PAUL SNIEGOSKI asks, "How's your girlfriend, PETE?" JEAN SANTANGELO is trying to wake up. A lot of studying last night? ALICE SILVA is sitting quietly reading a book. MIKE SULLIVAN is busy counting the days left till graduation, while KATHY SCANGAS counts the days until the weekend. Our Alpers' fashion consultant, HARRY SARAGLOW, tells everyone about the latest in men's wear. JAY SANDLER is busy doing last minute homework. When attendance is taken we see that LOIS SLAVIN is among the missing. The bell rings and we are off!

At 10:00 everyone returns to homeroom. BOB SKIPPER with the help of JACKIE STEIN is decorating the homeroom with his pictures. JOSEPH SIROIS is showing off his new tie, a thing of beauty! Our star athlete, LINDA SHELDON, is hitting tennis balls around the room. DIANE SAROWSKY ducks so she won't get hit. KATHY POTUWA and EILEEN ROUMELIOTIS have come to visit us. Our favorite redhead, CINDY STANSFIELD, regulates the heat. Student leader DARYLL SMITH is trying to get more freedom for the average student, and MARTHA SHELMAN is protesting the dress code. As SHELDON STEIN tells us about his skiing weekend, we wonder whether he goes for the skiing or with the hopes of meeting somebody? PAUL TALBOT asks, "What's for lunch?" BARBARA SZALKOWSKI leaves for Chorus, as ANN SANTOLIQUIDO goes downstairs to help in the nurse's office. THOM SCHWARTZ, our wandering minstrel, is entertaining. JOHN TADIELLO is visiting with friends, but DICK SWANTON tells him to be quiet so he can study. Study? Who studies here? Well, occasionally, I guess.

Of Mr. Meagher, our homeroom teacher, we will have nothing but fond memories. He puts up with a lot; noise, jokes, and guests, but he understands the students better than any other teacher. He deserves a medal for service above and beyond the call of duty. Thanks, Mr. Meagher, for a great year.

HOMEROOM C-70

Mr. Sullivan

Just as the 7:30 bell is about to sound its familiar ring, CAROL WEINBURG comes flying into the room in a fit of frenzy (she's forgotten her locker number again). She'll have to attend her first period without the company of her priceless books until she can find MR. MACIONE.

Here comes NANCY WHALEN and JUNE WEYMOUTH, late as usual. JUNE's car probably wouldn't start again! (It really helps to turn on the ignition.)

Just as MR. SULLIVAN asks us to stand and salute the flag WENDI WAXMAN pops her head in the door with a "hi there". We have our moment of "silent" meditation which isn't so very quiet because BOB TRIGILIO and BETSEY TOWNSEND are whispering up the back.

We just couldn't get through a morning without MR. MACIONE coming in and asking LARRY TURNER and ALAN WINER where they were yesterday. "In the Guidance Library, of course," they exclaimed. "All day," asks MR. MACIONE? Hopefully, with some fast convincing talk, they'll get by again.

During fourth period, MR. SULLIVAN is continually trying to calm things down to a dull roar. As usual, the frivolous foursome is at it again. Maybe DEBBIE WOLOSHEN really wants to sit in the last row all by herself. It's a good thing CHERYL WRIGHT goes to a lot of Student Council meetings or she'd be sitting there too. And will STEVE WELCH ever stop asking JEAN WELCH (the one who is always arguing with MR. MACIONE about the school's rules) about a certain sophomore?

It's about 11:00 now. In comes DANA TRODELLA (finally!) after another meeting of the Breakfast Club. (He must be president by now!). How come he smells like blueberry pancakes?

JOHN TSOUVALAS is not his usual self today. He's in a state of depression not only because the Bruins lost, but because he still hasn't met "Lelania" (sing it again, JOHN!). TODD VIGOR is trying to cheer him up by teaching him the latest "Chock-Full-of-Nuts" song.

If there's one person who's bound to show up on those half-days that everyone else cuts it's PAM THORNE. Does she really hate school as much as she says?

As we look around we see that our two shy and studious peers, CAROL WALL and CHARLES ZAKAS, are diligently improving their minds, oblivious to what is happening around them (they're not missing much).

Gee, SUE TUFTS is practicing her hand at magic again. We wonder if she can read our future.

MARCIA ("Peanut") WOLLMAN doesn't say much, but she's so cute that she stands right out. She and muscular DICK ("Stretch") WILSON really make a pair. What were the names of those guys in the old movies . . . Laurel and Hardy?

It's unbelievable that CAROL TERNULLO actually showed up for school today. There must have been something wrong with her "Fearless Fairlane". If it could have run more than ten miles this morning she'd be in Cape Cod by now instead of school.

Under the strict military exterior of MR. SULLIVAN, the warden of C-70, lies a warm and friendly personality.

MR. SULLIVAN is really a nice guy. He believes the rules were made to be obeyed to the letter . . . but why did WE always have to obey them too? Under his strict regime we have been trained to bring in our absent notes and always wait for the 3rd bell.

It took a lot of courage and perseverance to stand us . . . and he did. Congratulations and thank you, MR. SULLIVAN.

HOMEROOM V-106

Mr. Collyer

Good morning, and welcome to "A day in the lives of people in V-106".

The program this morning starts with the theme known as togetherness, represented by GEORGE APOSTOLIDES and JAQUELINE BAGARELLA. They just sit there staring at one another. I wonder why?

Then in come our "Three Stooges" — LORI CELEN-TANO, SHERYLE COLSON, and KATHLEEN CONNALLY. They always start off the morning with a few weird noises and then a laugh and giggle session.

Then the sound of trumpets fills the air and in walks our Vocational President, GEORGE CORNICHUCK. He motions a good morning to everyone. And how could we forget BRUCE BROWN? He's so quiet in school that you hardly know he's here. But out of school!!!

Wait! What's that scratching noise in the corridor? Is it a bird? No! Is it a plane? No! It's JOHN CAPOBIANCO. He made it just in time. I think it's the first day that he's been on time all year. We owe the credit to DENNIS BUCHARD. He bought JOHN the roller skates.

Here comes MR. COLLYER. He's our teacher. We all think he's a real great guy.

Well, this is where we must end now. We just want to say that this year has really been great.

HOMEROOM V-108

Mr. Boyd

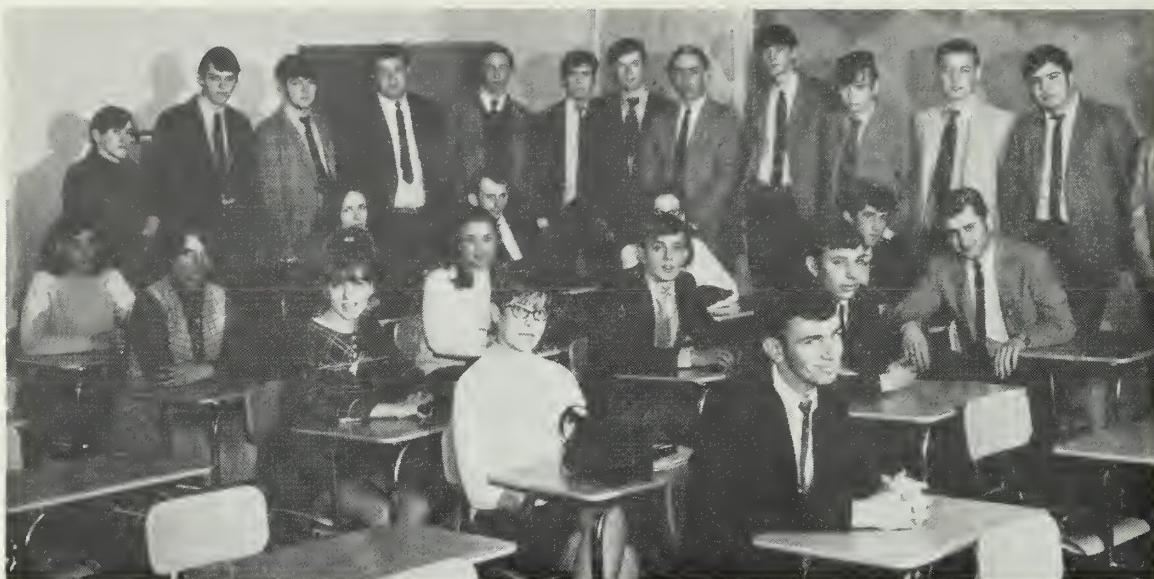

Swish! Zoom! There goes the rocket, V-108, heading for a far out planet. Commanding the ship is CAPTAIN BOYD and his crew members, PHIL HANSON, DENNIS IRWIN, TED LeMIEUX, and ROBERT GAGNON. MUFF JAIS, head stewardess, just spilled hot chocolate all over JIMMY DABRIO's bright pink shirt. Going higher and higher up into the clouds, and enjoying the sights is RONNIE GRAVES. Taking pictures of this glorious sight is STUIE GRAFF, News Week's top photographer. Sitting in the corner sighing is JOHN DAVIDSON. He is thinking about missing his Friday night at Nahant. HARRY KRONTERES and JIMMY KROL are playing with a walkie-talkie KATHY DOYLE doll. They find it quite amusing. IRENE LeBLANC, SHERRY EDELSTEIN, and MATLY KIRK are making plans to open a coffee house entitled: "Only Humans Allowed". LARRY FRENZO and JANE GRAVES are playing cards (as usual!). Greeting us at our arrival on this planet, our hosts are BILLY GRUNTKOSKY and STEVE KRAVCHUCK. We are fortunate to have a team up here like the Celtics. Our star players are TINY WAYNE EVERSON and BYRON JONES. The cheerleaders are MARIE DeALMEDIA, JIMMY HOGAN, BILLY HARTESY, and PENNY GEORGE. Here comes something referred to as a BOBBY KALINOWSKI. The discoverers of this creature were RICH and DAN GALLANT. Oooops! Error! This is no mistake! It is really a MIKE KAMINSKI! It's been a great year with all of you kids and the master of them all, MR. BOYD, on this weird planet of P.H.S.

HOMEROOM V-110

Mr. Oleks

Gosh, are we talkers in this Homeroom. Today we've been talking about something worth while (for a change). We've been discussing plans for after graduation.

THOMAS L'ITALIEN, RICH McMILLAN, and BRIAN WHITE are flying out with the Air Force on June 17th. ELAINE LEVINE, ANDY McFARLAND, MARY RYAN, RICHARD ZEULI, and FRED LUNDGREN are hoping to go back to school in the Fall. WILLIAM TATTERFIELD is going into the Marines and BOB THIBEAU will be joining the Marine Reserves. The Navy is waiting for STEVE MORGAN, JOHN MORTON, and JOE PITROWSKI.

We've heard rumors that MIKE WELCH, KAREN McGEE, JOHN LINCOLN, and JANET PINKHAM are going to join together and open up a tranquilizer factory. That sounds like MIKE's idea.

SHARON PAPPAS, JOEL MURPHY, and PAUL RAPTERY have some really important plans for the future but everything is top secret. WAYNE McELWAIN, MIRIAM LEVINE, and DAN SILVA are making tracks for Boston Common. What goes on there, anyway?

PHIL McCARTHY says he wants to go to the moon. We'll never know what PAUL McDONALD is going to do — he won't tell us. KENNETH REIDY has decided that he wants to travel around the world. HAROLD WARING wants to sleep for the rest of his life. MARY MICALCHUCK and JOHN LIGHTIZER have decided that they are going to work after graduation. Finally we come to LILLIAN TYLER, who is our famous escape artist from first period study. I wonder what she does during that class!

We do have to admit it though, we had a good Homeroom all year — starting out with MR. HOGAN and ending up with MR. OLEKS — both great! The year was a little tough but we finally made it. Good luck to everyone in the future.

My Fellow Classmates:

The vast and seemingly endless number of problems which are so much a part of today's world will suddenly be thrust upon the shoulders of our generation. The challenges of war, poverty, and racial prejudice, will all be ours. These obstacles along the road to a better world must be met with fierce determination; nothing else will insure complete victory. We must resolve never to pass off our share of the burden. Only a combined effort will bring final triumph.

We must strive for a society in which war is nonexistent; total war in this day and age would spell certain destruction for all.

Let us also endeavor to wipe poverty off the face of the earth. It will be a great day when we can say that no man hungers and no man lives in need of shelter. This ambition can and will be accomplished!

A milestone will have been reached when each man is judged solely upon his merits. I believe that this goal is nearer than we realize.

Many of you may say that these aspirations cannot be reached and that only an idealist would ever suggest them. But a realist must see that if today's problems are not dealt with squarely, our society will crumble into a worthless mass.

Find it within yourselves to step forth and build a foundation upon which all men may stand together. Unity is the formula for success—the only formula for success!

May God be with us all. I am humbly yours . . .

Steve Delaney
Senior Class President

CLASS HISTORY

Where has the time gone? It seems like only yesterday that we ascended the steps of the old high school to begin a four year adventure, with knowledge and experience as our main objectives.

We were now Freshmen, and, as usual, were looked down on by those "Big Upperclassmen". Just wait until we're Seniors!

Our induction into high school life was not as we expected — shared lockers, no gym facilities, double sessions, and even "supposed" assemblies performed by the use of the P.A. system!

But our hopes were aroused with the "beloved" bakery across the street, and our twelve minute breaks — with the "milk captains" bringing back ice cream sandwiches.

As Freshmen, we also learned the right way to become employed, by the production of "How Not To Get A Job," performed by the Senior class.

Then came our Sophomore year.

It was hard to believe that the beautiful edifice on the top of the hill could be our "home" for the next three years. With the new school, an adjustment of our schedule of living began — up at 6:00 a.m.; catching the school bus at pre-dawn hours; classes beginning at 7:30 with one eye open; lunch at 10:00 (who could think of eating at such an early hour!); and finally home after 1:45 with some hours of daylight left. We were finally rid of double sessions!

Not only did we have a new high school but a whole new look in the "student body" — with the establishment of the Dress Code. Jacket and ties forever!

Let us not forget the "Black Line," and even though we were too young to have our licenses, we had to know on which side of the "street" to "drive".

Lunches came alive during our Sophomore year with the help of music, piped in over the loud-speaker. Even our cafeteria food took on added flavor with this innovation!

Our Student Council ushered in the Christmas season with their production of "Twas the Night Before Christmas." With the Christmas assembly, good 'ole Saint Nick, and even gaily decorated homerooms, and holiday cheer entered Peabody High.

Having made it through a year within this novel environment, we were now initiated into that elite group known as "Upperclassmen."

As Juniors we could elect class officers to represent us.

At long last we could wear that special black onyx ring that bore those familiar words — truth, honor, and integrity; and we hoped we could live up to them.

CLASS HISTORY

It was the year we learned about hippie life in Haight-Ashbury in that hilarious play of "Hip Hippie Hooray!" Did the "Guru" know all? Only the hippies knew for sure!

Among the other events which enlightened our academic year were: the visit of the Navy Band; the Student-Faculty basketball game, with our fabulous female teacher cheerleaders (we never realized how talented they were!); the Salem Faculty vs. Peabody Faculty game; and the Junior Hop, with the "What" group adding the musical touch.

"A Time To Remember" — Our Junior Prom!

Do you remember the anxiety of waiting for that special invitation, shopping for just the right gown or renting your first tuxedo, and the excitement of the night itself? Rolling Green was the perfect setting for our gala evening, and even the weather cooperated.

Every Freshman awaits the time when he can look "down" on the lower grades, but when we became Seniors we realized that we faced added pressures and, for the first time, we were directly responsible for shaping our own future. It was time to do some serious thinking about what each of us would be doing after June 8.

And yet, there were many activities this year to keep our minds on the lighter side.

We began the year with a new principal, Mr. William A. Welch, Jr., after the retirement of Mr. Arthur Barry, who had devoted more than thirty years to the high school students.

What a year in sports we had! A near championship in both football and hockey — and a basketball and track team which gave us much excitement.

The spirit was overwhelming and our rallies tremendous.

The spirit of Christmas was everywhere as we anticipated our Christmas Ball. Montvale Plaza provided a perfect "wonderland" for this "enchanted" evening. How could we forget such a night?

Our next notable event was the production of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay;" which played to a packed house.

And how can we forget our one academic achievement of the year — our map books. These we will cherish and hold dear to come!!!!

As we drew near to the close of our four years of high school, we remembered our joys and anxieties, our happiness, and sorrow, only to realize that these mixed feelings were to be our assets in bettering ourselves and maturing as future citizens.

Although this was only the second year of indoor track at P.H.S., the Tanners were one of the powerhouses in the Northern Essex Conference.

The Tanners compiled a record of 6 wins against 3 defeats, to finish second in the Conference.

The first P.H.S. victory came at the hands of St. Mary's of Lynn. In this meet three P.H.S. records were broken. A 46-40 win over Chelmsford gave the trackmen a record of two wins against no defeats; the trackmen broke 4 records and tied one. The third win for P.H.S. was a 57-29 victory over Lynn Classical. In this meet, even with the limited amount of players, six P.H.S. records were broken. Peabody's fourth win was a 61-25 round over Tewksbury. Again two records were broken. The first of Peabody's three defeats came at the hands of Lawrence Central, 49-37. P.H.S.' second loss was to Danvers, a 52-34 defeat for the trackmen. The following week, P.H.S. bounced back to hand Lynn English its fifth loss of the season, therefore boosting the P.H.S. mark to 5 wins and 2 defeats.

The following week the Tanners handed Methuen its eighth loss of the season, although the final meet of the season was a disappointment, a 52-34 loss to North Reading.

At the Conference All-Star Meet, Peabody placed second in a field of ten. Outstanding performances by the trackmen made this achievement possible.

FOOTBALL

One of the most successful seasons in Peabody High history came to an end on Thanksgiving Day.

The football team of 1968 will long be remembered by all who watched and followed them from week to week. In pre-season polls, the Tanners were expected to win no more than two games. They won seven, led the North Shore Conference, and ranked third in the State.

Every player was outstanding in every game; it would be impossible to single out any one or two players as being "the team." The players who were outstanding were the players who gave up their week-day afternoons, their Saturday mornings, and the entire day of each game.

The Tanners "hard-nosed" front wall was one of the keys to success this year. The backfield of a team is dependent upon this wall to break through the opponent's line. Tom L'Italien, Pete Sakelakos, Charlie Lincicum, John Kentros, Neil Haggstrom, Louie Metaxatos, Bob O'Brien, and Pete Pavenski made up this impressive line.

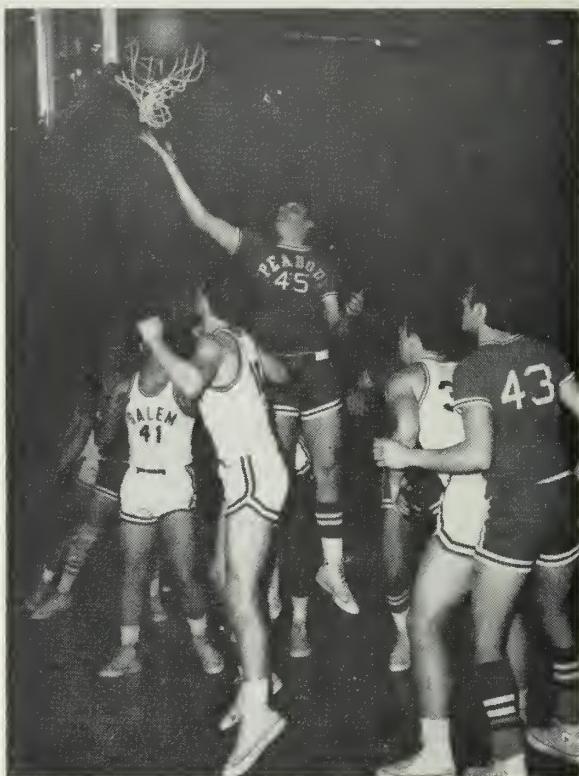

Credit should also be given to the great P.H.S. backfield. This backfield was the fastest, strongest, and most agile one in Peabody in many a year. Spearheading the backfield were Ralph Hudson, Sandy Dodge, Ed Begley, Dale Peterson, and our signal caller, Steve DeSisto. Offense is not the whole game of football, though. Defense is just as important. The defensive team of '68 will long be remembered as one of the hardest to run and pass against on the North Shore. Peabody allowed just 79 points in ten encounters, for an average of 7.9 points per game. The rugged P.H.S. defense consisted of Charlie Lincicum, Pete Morfs, Pete Sakelakos, Bob O'Brien, Ed Begley, Charlie Silva, Pete Pavenski, Steve Molk, and Mike Potuwa. This defensive unit terminated the state's longest victory streak when the Blue and White held St. John's Prep to just 6 points. The Tanners surged ahead to win with 14 points.

The season began with a taste of victory, a 28-0 romp over Lowell. The Tanners jelled very quickly and combined all efforts for victory. They then proceeded to keep their victory streak alive by downing Lawrence, 42-0; Beverly, 38-8; Lynn English, 26-6, and then, what must be called the biggest win for Peabody in many years, a 14-6 win over St. John's Prep. In this game, Ralph Hudson and Ed "Bumble Bee" Begley churned every blade of grass for what it was worth by combining for 136 yards rushing. Compliments go out to the Tanners' defense for the superb job of subduing the Prep offense and allowing them a mere 5 first downs. Peabody picked up its sixth win of the season by downing Gloucester, 31-6. The Salem Witches gave Peabody its first "loss" with a 14-14 tie. The spirit of the Blue and White was not broken, though, as they bounced back with a 35-13 win over Nashua.

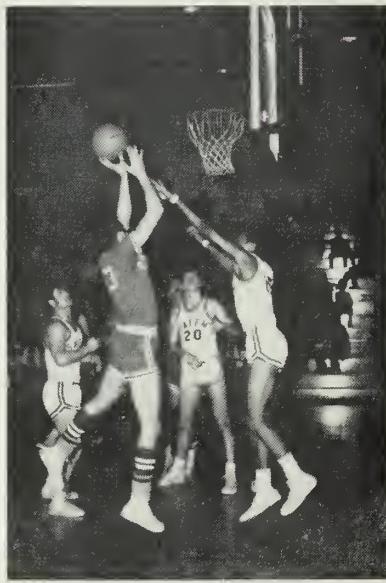

In the final game of the season, Peabody encountered its only defeat, a 26-14 loss to Saugus. Although the team did not come home with the turkey on Thanksgiving Day, the players put on a good display of power. They amassed a total of 19 first downs and held the Sachems to 5.

Coach Adamopoulos has high hopes for next year's team. The many underclassmen who were on the '68 team will have the depth and experience that contribute to victory.

We all wish him much success.

BASKETBALL

Although the Tanner Hoopsters did not have as successful a season as they had hoped for, they played some exciting basketball and always gave their utmost for victory. The Tanner Club was always "gung-ho" and when at full strength could be stacked up against the top teams and prove to be better than most opponents.

Peabody's record is most deceiving as the Tanners played much better than the record indicates. The injury-riddled Tanners played most of their games right to the wire but did not have the great depth found in the top teams.

The Tanner's departing seniors had a lot of talent; their absence will be greatly missed next season. At the guard spot and executing playmaking duties was Co-Captain Bill Linehan. Billy proved to be a real team player and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player. He also did some fine shooting and led his club in the scoring department with 149 points.

Playing both the forward and center spots, Co-Captain Buzz Partelides led the Tanner attack and shined on offense and defense. Despite an ankle injury forcing him to miss 5 games, Buzz still managed to average 18 points per game and was named to the Essex County League All Star Squad. Buzzy racked up 140 points and drew raves during his short 8 game playing span.

Mike Kolatka, another departing senior, made his presence known with his touch rebounding. Mike, often out-numbered in inches, made up the difference in strength. He often out-rebounded the bigger man. Mike also did some pretty fair shooting and accounted for many crucial baskets.

Rounding out the senior crew this season was Frank Kosidlak. The lanky 6'8" center did some fine rebounding and blocked his share of the shots. Frank was the Tanner defensive man in holding the opposition's top scorers.

Our departing seniors did a fine job this season and although the team did not have a very impressive season they proved to be real competitors and provided Tanner fans with many exciting moments.

HOCKEY

The P.H.S. Hockey team was considered the most improved team in the North Shore this season. They went from a 2-12-2 record last year to a 10-5-1 record this year and ended the season in second place.

Because of the great storm of "69", the Tanners lost out on a berth in the State Tournament. At the time of the storm the Tanner skaters were tied for second place with Lynn English. Although each team had one game remaining, hockey officials had to choose one of them to play in the State Tourney. Lynn English was chosen. When the last game was played, the Tanners gained sole possession of second place. The Tanners won their game and the Bulldogs lost.

Playing for their last time in P.H.S. hockey uniforms were Capt. Bob Gagnon, Kev. Lynch, Al Atkinson, Ken Langley, Frank Durgin, Steve Kravchuck, and John McCarter. These players were considered the backbone of the team. It will be a hard season next year without them.

Two of the unsung heroes of the team were Manager Bill "Moose" Frederick and Paul Teal. These two boys put in many hours of work for the P.H.S. Hockey Team.

The entire P.H.S. Hockey team would like to thank everyone who has made the season a total success. Special thanks go to the Cheerleaders and the "Pep" Squad.

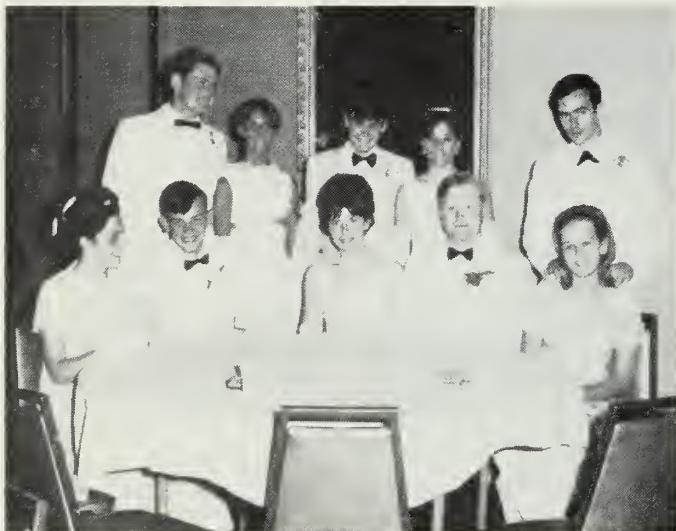

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

For the last three years a program of Intramural Sports has been established to allow students in our high school to participate in many aspects of athletics. Mr. Sapienza led the boys in basketball, flag football, volleyball, and golf, while Miss McNamara organized the girls in field hockey, badminton, tennis, softball, and volleyball.

The entire enrollment of students involved comprised a major proportion of our high school. These sports give some non-athletically inclined persons an opportunity to engage in athletic competition. It also keeps out-of-season athletes in trim for their own particular sport.

We all wish this program the best of luck in the future as plans for further expansion into other sports are being sought. Offshoots of this program are the girls 50 Mile Club, the Self-Defense Course, Gymnastics Classes, and a Girls' Running Team.

*Today is tomorrow's memory,
Existing only in our minds.
As the past is wholly revealed
In memories,
The future can only be partially revealed
In a pattern of unrealized,
Abstract dreams.
Each one is inspired by a need
To reach and Accomplish;
To learn and Grow;
To find peace.
Each person,
Place,
And experience
Will contribute to the completion of Tomorrow's design.
Yesterday is today's memory,
But tomorrow is today's dream.*
